

A Profound Person Through Time

profound

[prɪf-ˈfaʊnd] adjective, profounder, profoundest.

1. penetrating or entering deeply into subjects of thought or knowledge; having deep insight or understanding: a profound thinker.
2. originating in or penetrating to the depths of one's being; profound grief.
3. being or going far beneath what is superficial, external or obvious: profound insight.
of deep meaning; of great and broadly inclusive significance: a profound book.
5. pervasive or intense; thorough; complete: a profound silence.

Pick a person who has left a meaningful, or profound, and lasting impact on either society as a whole, or on a group of people in the world.

- Justify why you consider this person to be profound
- What changes have occurred because of this person, their actions, or reactions

Think about:

- * short term vs. long term changes
- * changes for individuals vs. changes for society as a whole

Your finished product must include two components:

- Oral presentation of 3-5 minutes
- Visual to support your oral presentation, eg. Prezi, Powerpoint, 3-D model, etc.

SELF	TEACHER	CRITERIA
		During my oral presentation, I have clearly justified why I believe this individual qualifies as a profound person in time. The evidence that I use is convincing to the audience.
		I have stated who was affected by this individual's actions or reactions.
		I have outlined the short term and long term changes that occurred in society as a result of this individual.
		I have outlined the changes that occurred in individuals' lives as well as the changes that occurred for society as a whole.
		The visual that I chose effectively supports my oral presentation and is relevant to the topic. I use it throughout my presentation.

- 4 – extremely effective / passionate
- 3 – effective (meets expectations)
- 2 – not entirely convincing
- 1 – attempted, but ineffective
- R – not present